

Cleary this new move, which will allow ever greater control of print and broadcast media by a few large, wealthy corporations, will have far-reaching negative political and cultural impact on life in this country. It will facillitate control of political debate by a wealthy few. It will reduce the chances for diverse forms of entertainment, music drama, etc.. to reach a wide audience. The only cause that it serves full well is obviously greed!